

HOMELAND

FOUR PORTRAITS OF NATIVE ACTION

*"Powerful. Wrenching. Our (Best of Festival) Decision
Was Unanimous."*

- Alan Root, Jackson Hole Wildlife Film Festival

Beginning Nov. 4th, watch the broadcast of the new award-winning documentary, Homeland: Four Portraits of Native Action, on select PBS channels around the country.

Homeland follows leaders from four Native American communities passionately struggling to preserve sovereignty and save their lands.

For a complete listing of stations and to learn more about the film, please visit Katahdin Foundation at www.katahdin.org.

Stations Include:

- Alabama
- Albuquerque
- Austin
- Boston
- Charlotte
- Connecticut
- Dallas
- Iowa
- Kansas City, MO
- Milwaukee
- Minneapolis
- Montana
- Nashville
- New York
- Ohio
- Oklahoma
- Rochester
- Sacramento
- San Bernadino
- San Francisco
- South Carolina
- Springfield, MO
- Wisconsin
- World Channel

National Partners

Indigenous Environmental Network (IEN)
Honor the Earth

Presented by Native American Public Telecommunications

A Production of The Katahdin Foundation National Engagement Campaign with Active Voice

