Gloria Ushigua Santi is in the Bay Area to participate in the Refinery Corridor Healing Walk on July 16th. Gloria is a warrior for her people and the living jungle which her people have inhabited since the beginning of time. She is the Coordinator of the Sápara women's organization Ashiñwaka, which defends Sápara people's ancestral land and rights in the province of Pastaza, Ecuador. She has testified in front of the United Nations and the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Peoples. Her community has been fighting the fossil fuel industry for many years.

Gloria is one of the original signatories on the Indigenous Women of the Americas Defending Mother Earth Treaty.

There will be a Treaty signing ceremony afterward for Indigenous women who are ready to make the required commitments to being a Treaty signer.
